STRRENDER OF JEFF THOMP ON — PARTICULARS OF THE AFFAIR.—From the Provost Marshel General's office we learn the following particulars of the surrender of Jeff Phompson, who once boasted that he owned the 'cattle on a thousand hills:"

who once bossed that he owned the "cattle on a thousand bids:"

Two weeks ago last Saturday, Lientenant-Colonei Davis, Assistant Provost Marshai, and Capatin J. F. Bernett, of the staff of Major-General Dodge, received orders from that theneval to proceed to Cape Girardeau, where an escort would be in waiting to escort them to Chalk Bluffs, Mo.

At Cape Girardean Lleutenant-Colonel Hines was found ready with two hundred of the 17th litingle cavelry, to escort the lag of true and messengers to Chalk Bluffs. The day after the party left the Cape, two hundred more men of the same regiment, with a section of artillery, followed the escort party. With the exception that the nessengers and escort were nearly entering the most of the St. Francois river were reached, and Lieutenant Colonel Davis, Captain Bennett, and the escort of cavalry encamped at Chalk Bluffs, Mo.

Another detachment of cavalry, the 7th Kanchen Colonel and Capating the cape of the staff of the same control of the cape of the same cape of the same capating the capatin Cajanin Bennett, and the escort of cavalry encemped at Chaik Bluffs, Mo.

Arother detachment of cavalry, the 7th Kanstein, numbering three hundred men, under command of Col. Beveridge, had gone of foward Denij kan, so as to be prepared for emergencies. They encountered no opposition, but narrived at Donijahan, Ripley county, Missouri, alout the time the messanger or ling of truce party arrived at Chaik Bluffs.

1 pen reaching the bluff 't was ascertained that Gen. Thompson had gone south to meet another fire of truce from Gen. Reynolds, commanding the Department of the Arkansas. Lient Col. Davis and Capt. Bennett remained at Chaik Bluffs, but a flag of truce, with an escort, proceeded on until they reached Hurishurg, where they found Jeff Thompson. That General, upon being informed that messengers from Gen Podge awaited his return to Chaik Bluffs, returned to that point, and held a long conference with Col. Davis and Capt. Be meet. There gen' men offered the same terms to Jeff Thompson and his men that had been offered by Lieut.-Gen. Grant to Gen. Robt. Lee, and they were accepted. The final surrender and ettlement will be made May 25th at Wittsburg, Missouri on the St. Francis river, and at Jacksonport, Arkansas, on the White river, on the St. Francis river, and at Jacksonport, Arkansas, on the White river, on Jackson ort. Arkansas, on the White river, or the 5th of June. Leff Thompson at first desired to make som Jeff Thompson at first desired to make some arrangement in regard to civil matters, but was cut short by Colonel Davis and Captain Bennett, with the answer that they had nothing to now the such matters. Thompson remarked that, although Lee had surrendered, he did not consider the Confederate cause had been alam loned, for as long as Jeff D vis was free the Confederate soldiers would raily to his standard, and they would yet establish a separate government. The only teason he (Thompson) would consent to a surrender was, that the inhabitants of his district were starving, and his men were now to a numerical was, that the inhabitants of his district were starving, and his men were now at home attending to their crops.

Thor two expressed his disapprobation of the murder of President Lincoln, and said that he would have been sorry even to hear that Mr Lincoln had died a natural death, for he believed him to be the only triend of the South among these in power.—Missouri Democrat.

The well-known elephant Hanribal diet re-had an opportunity of ascertaining the sentiment of Congress upon the subject.

Ciscinnari, May 19.

Major-General Thomas visited the Merchants' Exchae ge vesterday, and was enthusistially received. He has returned to Louisville.

The Commercial's Nashville Cespatch says there is a prospect of conflict between the justical and executive powers in Tenuessee. Gay, Brownlow, as speed agent of the Treasury Department, acting under written orders from that Department, had rented out some abandened piporty telonging to disloyal persons who were in the Southern Contederacy.

Judge Trigg, at a preceding term of the Cont, ordered a tenant of the Treasury department to be dispossessed of a farm which he had rented from Brownlow, and the precety restored to the owner.

Geu, Tillson, on Goy. Brownlow's application enforced the contract and Judge Trigg's order was disregarded.

On Treeday, Judge Trigg, at Knoxville, delivered a charge to the Graud Jury, in which he directed thrue, in strong language, to indict Governor Brownlow. Judge Trigg is understood to be bestile to the confiscation laws. A despatch from Reseac, Ga., says that Jeff Davis arrived at Macou on Monday, and was sent to Augusta with a strong guard. From thence he will be taken to Fortress Mouroe via Savannah.

pet, and his leading Generals. out the most damaging exposition, as yet, Mr. Davis is afforded by the letter we published yesterday, addressed to Cool Straw Hats, on the 11th of last February, less hree months ago, by the Hon. W. S. Olda Senator from Texas in the Confederat ress. In that letter the writer spoke of an iew held by himself and Senator Johnson President Davis a few days before in rela to a project to burn the Federal shipping ench as New York, Boston, Philadel. Baltimore, Portland, &c , to burn ever leaving the United States for foreign or of New York or other ports with sup e for the Federal armies, and to burn ever ort and gunboat on the Mississippi, b devastating the country and filling the with terror and consternation. And all porrid work was to be done, not by millts. ces, not in open and legitimate wariar es ignorant of what they were doing. me, that, in the interview of Senators Old. and Johnson with Davis, he suged some objections to the plan, not as im or undesirable, but as probably not fee He wanted the thing done if it could be was afraid that it couldn't. And O ...ham' er, to which we have referred, was subse tly written, to convince him that the pl an interview with General Harris, former er of Congress from Missouri, who, Orcha ald remove any doubts that might ren in his mind. The party asks the President to have an inview with General Harris, formerly from sourt, on the subject of the Secretary of the at his convenience: Please see General rris, and learn what plan he has for overhing the difficulty heretofore experienced.

Received February 17, 190-J. D.

From all this it is certain that Jeff Davis, see months are was not only willing but menthe ago, was not only willing but our that all the Federal towns and all the al shipping upon the Atlantic, Ohio, and cippi should, it possible, be burned and ountry devastated, not by Confederate but by hired agents prowling about at ight armed with mysterious combustibles to burn New York and Philadelphia e in pursuance of the plan to which Davis ne can have regretted the failure more the Yet he and other leading rebals like him been cursion the Federal armies ince ay when did any Federal efficer high or lov oncoct a plot a thousandth part as Satanle helich as that which Jeff Davis and his eds whiled to see executed and undertool

We do not say that Jeff Davis had anything do with the complracy to marder Mr. Lin ln, but we can assert without hegitation that uman being willing to see such a plot carout as was set forth in Oldham's letter to ris is none too good to participate in a plot employing midright agents to assassinat the Federal functionaries, civil and military the whole country.

WASHINGTON, May 10. The witnesses for the defence were to day dismissed till Monday. About twenty have been thus lar summonel. The United States have pre bally three more witnesses to examine, and an effort will be made to conclude the testimony for the prosecution to morrow. The trial will prohably be closed next week. This morning up to recess C. H. Rosch was examined as to his having obtained postession of Spangler's carpet-bag on the 17th, and found therein a piece of rope eighty-one leet long.

After recess Mr. Rosch was recalled and identified the rope found in Spangler's cack.

Tous Exton testified that he arrested Spangler at his house in Washington.

Win. Wallace testified that he arrested O'Langhilm on the 17th of May. On the way to the police office, O'Langhilm spoke of the mer der as a bud affair, and denied that he have thing to do with it.

James Gilberd, caspenter at Ford's Theatre, gave information about the ditting up of the box occupied by President Lincoln. Nothing specially important was efficied by his examination. The witnesses for the defence were to day dis

After winness, own wounds were dressed, he went into life lather's rison and saw he had a large gash on his cheek, one on his throat and one under his lead. Witness was satisfied that the prisoner at the bar was the same man.

The court proceed at to extinine Col. P. J. Taylor, on duty at Headquarters Department Washington, who testified that he received from Lt. Torril the paper taken from Broth's trunk on the right of the 11th, written in Confederate cipher, "Give to Col. Wells."

C. R. Bosch, o. Washington, was cross-examined by the Judge Advisete, sall he went to Spongler's after his arrest and found a carpet-seck with a rope in it eighteen feet long; the twist appeared to be tak near of it; nothing in it but papers and a dity shit.

Surgeon General Brown testified to the character of the wounds received by Mr. Seward. He alo testified to pleking up a cost on the 16 h of April in the woods, between Banker Hill and Sairatoga. The two costs were shown the witness; one was a Confederate gray, the other a checkered green color. Witness testified to the latter as the one picked up. It had the traces of blood on the sleeves.

Mr. Rosch was recevanined, and kientified he pocket-compass, needle case, tooth, and hair brush, as also the other articles found on Ifasue when searched.

Mr. Jordan testified is saw the boot of er its urders, oning action and came to the concast in that the name written was J. W. Booth. He did not krow at the time who wore it.

Mr. Worth testified similar, having made out the letters J. W. Booth.

When Payne was unfettered he arose, and every eye was directed toward him. His face was slightly pairs, and his liys, curling into an involuntary smile, revealed damples in his cheeks, to which the colored boy nad allined in his cheeks, to which the colored boy nad allined in his cheeks, to which the colored boy nad allined in his cheeks, to which the colored boy

That is to say, he has lightened the excise duties and increased the England. Yet, notwithstanding this fearful customs. It requires an experienced and truly escacions mind, and one thoroughly trained in ractical affairs to know when and where to apply ideas of this sort, simple as they are, to vast and intricate system of governmental taxation; but the sequel has certainly shown that such a mind is the one possessed by Mr. Gladstone of Eugland.

He has reduced the engar duties, the fire in surance duties, the income tax, and other mluor duties to a considerable amount; and still the public revenues grow larger, and the Chancel or of the Exchequer already boasts that he has a large amount—three millions sterling—placed to the credit of the treasury. With what other reductions it is in his mind to make from duties during the current fiscal year, he expects at the end of the year to have five millions sterling to relieve his countrymen of, in the shape of taxes. This practical demonstration of financial abilas a candidate for the Premiership in the event class of this ers appointed by the Governmen of Palmerston's death or reelgnation.

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKT,
FREUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
FEANKFORT, April 21, 1865.)
In view of the sad calamity which has fallen apon our country by the assassination of Abraham Lincoln, the President of the United States of America, it becomes us as a people to humble ourselves before a merciful God, and pray Him that the sin of our people, which has culminated in such great crime, be forgiven and we purged from our iniquity and be again retored to His favor and to peace and unity mougst ourselves.

For this purpose Thursday, the 1st day of Pumps and Tubing une, 1865, is hereby appointed as a day of fasting, humiliation, and prayer. On that day the people of Kentucky are inoked to suspend all secular business, and at the usual hour for service attend their respective places of worship, and engage in the solemn and earnest observance of the day as one for hamiliation before God and prayer for His forgiving mercy and sustaining grace in this our day of THOS. E. BRAMLETTE, Governor of Kentucky.
